ALLIES TAKE VALENCIENNES DIAZ GIVES ARMISTICE TERMS

CANADIAN TROOPS CAPTURE IMPORTANT TOWN OF VALENCIENNES, THE DEFENSE OF WHICH HAS BEEN STUBBORN IN THE EXTREME.

ANOTHER GREAT GERMAN RETREAT PROBABLE AMERICANS ADVANCE AHEAD OF SCHEDULE
ITALIAN NAVAL UNITS NOW IN ACTION

Mountain Passes Seized by the Troops of General Diaz As the Pursuit of the Disorganized Austrian Forces Continues Unremittingly. One Thousand Square Miles of Italy Liberated.

(By The War Editor of The Associated Press)

Valenciennes has fallen, the allied troops in Italy maintain their pursuit of the Austrians and west of the Meuse and in Flanders Marshal Foch continues to press the Germans.

Canadian troops captured the important town of Valenciennes after bitter fighting for more than 24 hours in the area south of the town. The Germans fought tenaciously to retain Valenciennes but the British overpowered the enemy resistance in desperate struggles.

ANOTHER BIG RETREAT NEAR

With Valenciennes gone the Germans not unlikely will have to give up Tournai and to retreat both in Flanders and south of Valenciennes.

British possession of the town and the area east of the Scheldt south of Valenciennes outflank the enemy positions in the Mormal forest which defend Maubeuge and Mons. It is evident the Germans must retire or suffer heavy losses in attempting to maintain insecure positions from Ghent to the region north of the Aisne. The main German position behind the present position is the Antwerp-Namur-Metz line.

ALLIES REACH THE SCHELDT

In Belgium the allies, including American troops, have reached the Scheldt on a wide front southwest of Ghent and are reported to be west of the river at Eecke, 7 miles southwest of Ghent. The Germans' situation around Ghent is becoming hazardous, as the town is being outflanked.

HUNS POKED IN WOODS

West of the Meuse the Germans now are in a serious position through the successful American and French drive of Friday which placed them in a pocket in the forest of Boulton north of the Argonne. General Gouraud's men resumed the offensive Saturday and are pressing through the wooded region west of the Boulton forest. The French and Americans have captured more than 4400 prisoners.

ARMISTICE TERMS PRESENTED

Allied armistice terms have been handed the Austrians by General Diaz, whose victorious troops continue to push the enemy back from Lake Garda to the Adriatic.

MOUNTAIN HEIGHTS TAKEN

Between Asiago and the Piave the allies have advanced to the Brenta at Gringo, capturing many important mountain heights. The Austrians apparently are fleeing precipitately northward through the Trentino leaving thousands of prisoners and hundreds of guns.

NEARING THE TAGLIAMENTO

East of the Piave the Italians, British and Americans are pressing toward the Tagliamento river along the entire front. It is reported the Austrians are evacuating Udine.

ITALIAN NAVY UNITS ACTIVE

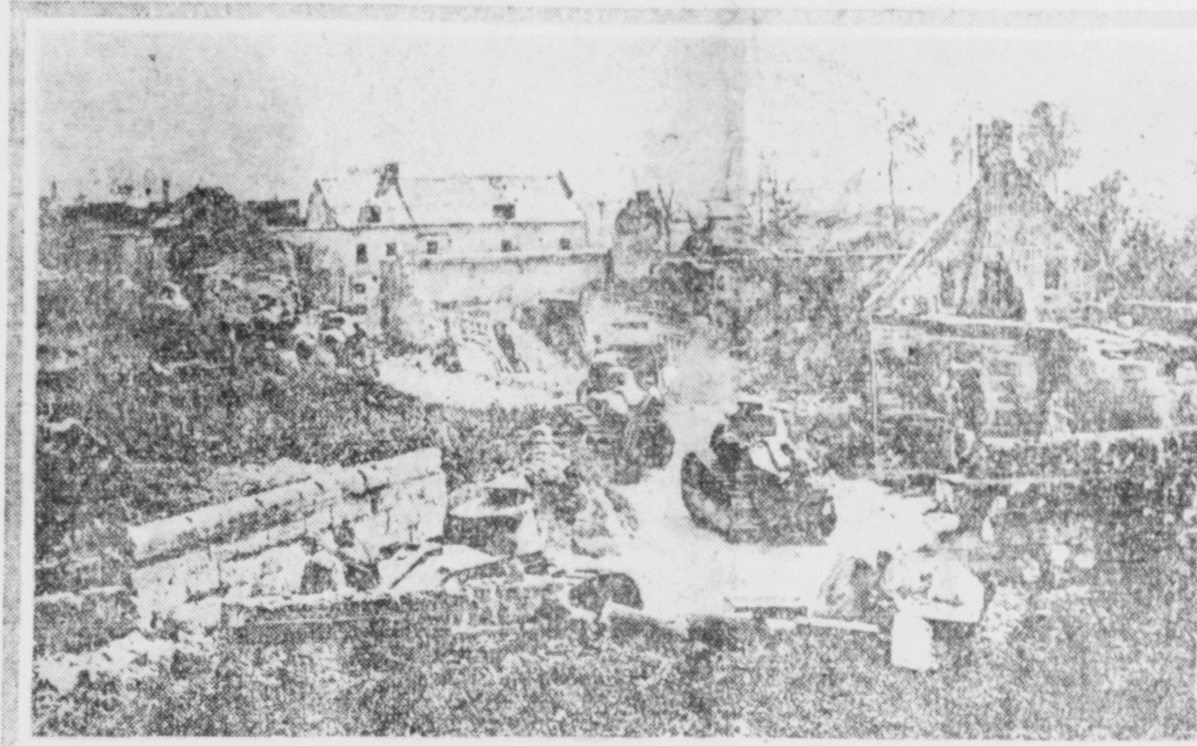

Italian naval units also are active against the Austrian coast along the Adriatic. Rome announces the Austrian dreadnaught Veribus Unitis has been destroyed by the Italians.

More than 1,000 square miles of Italian territory had been liberated by the allies up to Friday.

SUPER DREADNAUGHT SUNK

WASHINGTON, NOVEMBER 2. — Destruction of the Austrian super-dreadnaught, Veribus Unitis, by the Italians, is announced in an official dispatch today from Rome.

FRENCH "WHIPPET" ADVANCING

A striking picture of French "Whippet" or "Baby" tanks in close pursuit of the fleeing Huns. The tanks are shown passing through a deserted village recently captured from the Huns. These little scappers can be relied upon to hit the enemy lines hard and wipe up the many machine gun nests upon which the enemy depends for the holding up of the Allied advance.

AMERICANS AHEAD OF ADVANCE SCHEDULES

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY, Northwest of Verdun, (10:00 a. m.), November 2.—The American first army continues its offensive movement today. Ahead of their schedule the American forces were engaged in working their way forward to exploit their successes of yesterday. The Germans were continuing their resistance which promised to grow heavier as the higher ground was reached.

OFFICIAL PROBING OF BROOKLYN'S RAPID TRANSIT CAR HORROR

Death Toll Now Numbers 98 as Announced by Police.

Motorman Under Cross Fire of Investigators.

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, November 2.—With the death toll placed at 98 by the Brooklyn police rigid investigations were under way today by the public service commission. Attorney Lewis of Kings county and Mayor Highland to determine the blame of the wreck last night of the Brighton Beach train of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company in the Malbone street tunnel, Brooklyn. Yesterday's strike of motormen and motor switchmen of the company which was coincident with the tragedy was settled early today, company officials agreeing to reinstate 29 discharged union employees. The company had previously refused to obey the order of the war labor board and take back the men.

Interest in the investigation centered on William Lewis, motorman of the ill-fated train who was arrested on a charge of homicide at his home early today, after he had fled from the scene in terror.

Lewis was a train dispatcher pressed into service as a motorman and Samuel Rusoff, a guard on the train, were arraigned in the police court today on a charge of homicide and were held for an examination Thursday.

Lewis told Mayor Highland and the district attorney that he went to work at five o'clock yesterday morning, at 4:30 in the afternoon, was assigned as a motorman on the Brighton Beach line, being willing after 12 hours of work because he wished to earn extra money for his family.

Another phase of today's investigation was the fact that the train was composed of wooden cars at least 25 years old. It was said that there was not a steel body car in the train of five cars and when the crash came most of the cars were reduced to splinters.

Investigation of the dead progressed slowly. Many of the victims who were buried under the wreckage in the dark tunnel were so badly mutilated that identification was almost impossible.

ARMISTICE TO TURKEY REQUIRES DEMOBILIZATION

Little Mercy Shown Turks Who Are Compelled to Accept Terms Amounting to Unconditional Surrender.

(By Associated Press Cable)
London, November 1.—The armistice accepted by Turkey amounts to "complete and unconditional surrender."

This statement was made by Lord Robert Cecil, assistant secretary of state for foreign affairs to the Associated Press tonight.

With reference to rumors to the effect that the armistice with Turkey includes clauses by which Turkey would retain sovereignty over Armenia and other provinces the foreign office authorizes the statement that there is no truth in the suggestion that any secret political agreement is annexed to the armistice with Turkey.

Lord Robert emphasized the statement of the foreign office to the Associated Press by saying that "no secret undertakings or engagements have been made with Turkey so far as the British government is concerned."

He added that the armistice had been signed by Great Britain on behalf of all the allies.

Discussing conditions in Germany, Lord Robert said the indications of the last day or two were that the pan-Germans were losing their hold. He declared that no Bolshevism had been reported in Germany, but that it was spreading in parts of Austria.

ARMISTICE TERMS

London, November 1.—The terms of the armistice granted by the allied powers to Turkey follow:

First—The opening of the Dardanelles and the Bosphorus and access to the Black Sea. Allied occupation of the Dardanelles and Bosphorus forts.

Sixteenth—The surrender of all garrisons in Hadjaz, Assir, Yemen, Syria and Mesopotamia to the nearest allied commander, and withdrawal of Turkish troops from Cilicia, except those necessary to maintain order as will be determined under clause 6.

Twenty-fifth—Hostilities between the allies and Turkey shall cease from noon local time, Thursday the 31st of October, 1918.

Supt. O. S. Nelson announced Friday evening that the rural and village schools of the county would be reopened Monday morning of the coming week, and a large attendance was expected as the influenza has very largely died out and no further trouble is anticipated from the epidemic.

It was the first time in the history of the county that all schools in the county were closed at one time and for so long a period, as result of an epidemic.

FOOD NEEDS GREATER WHEN PEACE COMES

New York, November 2.—Whether we continue to fight the Germans next year or whether we have peace, America must produce still more food in 1919, declared Clarence Ousley, Assistant Secretary of Agriculture, in an address before the New York Humanitarian Society last night.

Mr. Ousley warned that unless the people of the cities go to the farms in increasing numbers in 1919 it can not reasonably be expected that the necessary crops will be planted or harvested. He cited instances of the heroism of farmers and their wives who have labored under great difficulties this year that the world might not go hungry.

"We shall need more food in peace than in war," Mr. Ousley said, "for the moment we conclude peace with the Central Powers they will be in the market for our food and they and half the world around them are hungry after four years of privation."

"We may well begin to inquire now what will be the agricultural status following the restoration of peace," Mr. Ousley continued. "We must remember that several years will be required to bring about a readjustment of economic and industrial conditions. Many whole countries have been devastated; their labor has been more or less decimated and the demand for physical reconstruction of the cities, of roads and of public works will be so great and wages probably so high that it may come to pass that few people comparatively will be inclined to go back to the farm."

TROTSKY URGING MURDERERS ONWARD

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Moscow, October 15.—Leon Trotsky the commissioner of war has been at the Czech-Slovak front personally addressing troops and endeavoring to encourage a more general movement against the white guards and Czechs. Trotsky has issued several mandates criticizing officers of the red army who have not resolutely opposed the Czechs and declaring that commanders who show cowardice will be instantly shot. His mandates say the soldiers and sailors of the labor and peasant army are not cowards and want to fight. Their retreats, he says, are due to cowardly and treacherous officers.

WILL LIFT BAN ON NEXT SUNDAY

There was some expectation that the ban ordered by the health authorities would be lifted tomorrow but at a meeting of the Board of Health after a review of conditions and consultation with the health authorities of the state it was determined to take no chances and postpone conditions which show such marked improvement.

ORDERS OF THE HEALTH DEPT.

We think it unnecessary to enter details as to why, but after a careful and thorough investigation of health conditions in the city and county and consultation with the physicians we have decided to keep in force the orders and restrictions of the past few weeks for one more week.

The action of the State Health Commission on last Thursday giving to the local board the power to act in this matter did not mean the immediate lifting of the ban unless conditions justified and conditions do not justify at this time.

We fully appreciate the fact that business has been interfered with to some extent and there has been a money loss to some. This can be regained to a certain extent but to those in whose homes death has come and sickness to probably undermine health of others, their sacrifice is greater and nothing can repay their loss.

We feel that with conditions improving next week as they have this, we can lift the restrictions as follows:

Churches and houses of worship Sunday, November 10th.

Public and private schools, Monday, November 11th.

Lodges, picture theaters, pool rooms, places of amusement and all other places which have come under the ban, Monday, November 11th.

We again ask that you strictly observe the past orders. While the wave has passed over there is yet danger ahead of us if we get careless.

We all know it has been bad enough but it could have been worse, lets make it no worse than it has been.

Orders of the Health Department, November 1st, 1918.

City of Washington.

Thanking you for the Board of Health.

JNO. W. BYRON,

Health Officer.

MAKING HEADWAY IN CORN HUSKING

There is reason to believe that when the severe weather sets in, if it is not unusually early this year, that the bulk of the corn crop in Fayette county will be husked and cribbed, as the farmers are making rapid headway in this important work, and were enabled to begin husking much earlier than usual because of the speedy manner in which the corn cured ready for cribbing.

Corn huskers are more abundant than was at first thought possible, due to the fact that many persons in non-essential work took up farm work under the "work or fight" clause of the draft machinery.

As a general thing the corn is of excellent quality this year, and well cured, but the quantity in many parts of the county is not as great as usual, due in part to a poor stand obtained last spring and the extremely dry weather at a critical time in the development of the corn.

Farmers are selecting their seed corn and placing it where it will be well protected, thus guarding against a repetition of last year's great seed corn shortage.

Makes Serious Charges in a Public Statement to Farmers

The following interesting public statement has been given out by Martin G. Morris of this city:

MR. FARMER:
Do you know that Governor James M. Cox is using the veterinary organization of Ohio to promote his political interests?
Do you know that as a result of this political manipulation the expense of treating hogs will cost the farmer thousands of dollars more than he otherwise would pay?

Under the present ruling of the State Board of Agriculture, appointed by Governor Cox, upon recommendation of Governor Cox's State Veterinary, Dr. Theo. A. Burnett, licensed veterinarians are the only ones permitted to treat hogs and there is NO LIMIT to the price they may charge? As a result it is known that the cost of treating hogs has advanced from 20 to 100 percent and perhaps even more in certain cases. This undoubtedly is a consequence of the removal of competition.

Rule 4 adopted by the Board of Agriculture of Ohio authorizes the State Veterinary to grant permits to licensed veterinarians and others who are competent. He refuses to grant such permits to others than licensed veterinarians, no matter how extensive their experience has been in treating hogs. I have treated more than forty thousand (40,000) hogs in Fayette and adjoining counties. I am one of the many who have been arbitrarily ruled out.

Here is my statement of facts regarding my interview with Governor Cox, his Secretary of Agriculture and his State Veterinary:
Being refused the right to treat hogs, I in company with several prominent farmers of Fayette county called upon Governor Cox at his office in Columbus on October 23rd this year. After an explanation of the situation and a full discussion, Governor Cox said to me, in the presence of the others, that he would recommend to the State Veterinary that I with others in Fayette county be permitted to treat hogs.

Following that interview Dr. Burnett, State Veterinary, telephoned to my partner in Fayette county for him and myself to come to Columbus, which we did the following day and had an interview with him. The matter was again fully discussed and it was agreed that Dr. Burnett would ship me hog cholera serum and virus for the treating of hogs and would also give me a permit. I immediately proceeded to arrange to treat hogs and have at the present time somewhere near two thousand hogs to treat. When this fact became known the veterinarians from Fayette county went to Columbus and had an interview with Governor Cox and his State Veterinary and as a result of their interview, on October 29th, I with others again appeared before the State Veterinary and the Secretary of Agriculture, at which time they refused me and others the right to treat hogs for our neighbors, which refusal was in direct contradiction of Dr. Burnett's expressed promise made on Thursday, October 24th, at the recommendation of Governor James M. Cox, and I now have on hand serum and virus enough to treat a thousand hogs, and am denied the right of using it. Therefore, all our effort in trying to assist ourselves and neighbors to eradicate hog cholera is in vain. And the statement issued a few days ago that the farmer could treat his hogs was issued to catch votes and not to stop the spreading of hog cholera.

As to my personal integrity and responsibility, I refer anyone interested to any prominent farmer or bank in Fayette county.

Changes of Fortune

It was General Townshend, the heroic British officer, compelled by the Turks, in the early years of the war, to surrender Kut-el-Amara, who bore the message of the Turkish government to the allies, consenting to an unconditional capitulation of the Ottoman forces.

Since the surrender at Kut-el-Amara General Townshend has been a prisoner of war at Constantinople.

It is impossible, of course, for the civilian to realize the emotion that must have swayed the gallant Britisher as he bore the message of surrender to his comrades waiting beyond the great gates of the Dardenelles—what a flood of pent up information it enabled him to give to his country. Too late, perhaps, to be of military assistance because for Turkey, when Townshend walked forth to the British lines, the war was over.

The wheel of war had slowly completed its turn and for Townshend the haunting memories of the disaster at Kut-el-Amara, the solitude of the Turkish prison camp vanished in the realization that victory had come.

It was toward little Serbia, across the Danube, in July, 1914, that Austria, at the command of Berlin, shook the mailed fist and demanded the impossible. It was around little Serbia that great hurricane of war gathered and broke.

Serbia crushed as a nation, its inhabitants scattered, is rehabilitated and it is from Serbia as well as in Italy that the final blows under which Austria is crumbling in ruins, are now being delivered.

Gallant little Serbia, true to her allies and true to her principle, steadfast unto the end, ultimately triumphs and Austria, the bully, is prostrate among the ruins wrought by war.

To Make Ohio Dry

In the multitude of attention-compelling duties and tremendous and gripping developments that are demanding attention at this time the voters of Fayette county should not forget that they will have an opportunity on next Tuesday to make Ohio a dry state.

The opportunity for settling the ever recurring wet and dry issue final and right was never brighter than it is this year, perhaps the prospect of success was never so encouraging as it is this year.

The result of the election is entirely within the keeping of the dry advocates in the dry counties. If the long time advocates of state-wide prohibition don't go to sleep at the switch the result seems scarcely in doubt, because there are a host of voters who have joined the dry forces since the last election two years ago.

There is danger, however, that the increased dry vote in the heretofore wet sections of the state may go for naught because of the neglect of the dry sections to roll up the usual or a larger vote for prohibition.

Fayette is a dry county. There is no argument about the merit of the cause which a majority of Fayette county voters have approved at the ballot box as many times as they have been given the chance to express themselves.

The only doubt is that they may be distracted from one of the big purposes of the election by other things.

Every dry voter in Fayette county should see to it that his own and his neighbor's dry vote is put in the box next Tuesday.

Be alert, be prompt and be certain to espouse the cause of temperance at the polls.

Only Shells

An insight into the true condition prevailing in Bulgaria, Turkey and Austria-Hungary discloses, in each instance, that the resistance of the enemy behind the lines has been but little more than a shell for some time.

Austria-Hungary's disintegration has been rapid and is, apparently, final. Whether Emperor Charles and the autocrats of Austria-Hungary will be able to again make peace with the separate states, now springing into existence, only time can tell.

The action of Charles, however, seems conclusive evidence that that hope exists, but expert observers incline to the belief that never again can the several nationalities, now free of the Hapsburg yoke, be prevailed upon to again become a part of an empire, even under reformed conditions, ruled by a Hapsburg.

With true Teutonic stubbornness the German states have set up their own government and declare their intention of standing with the autocratic government of the Hohenzollerns.

What has already occurred justifies the belief that when the surrender comes from Germany conditions there will be found to be but little, if any, better than they are in Austria-Hungary and Bulgaria.

POEM FOR TODAY

THE STAR OF THE NORTH
Behold! a symbol jewel shines
Hoar-white above the northern pines
A benison, as day declines,
On barriers riven;
Shines on one land, one vast page
scrolled,
Littered with blood and fire and gold—
A deed fulfilled as years unfold,
Witnessed by Heaven!

There is no line!—let the winds blow
From purple gulf to arctic floe—
Though flags and kings may come and go,
And tongues be mixed,
Since brothers twain, yet distant, stood
As one for Anglo-Saxonhood,
And signed a covenant in blood—
One star is fixed!

Star of the North! Guide in our night!
Steady our shifting needle's flight.
And 'round thee, mark of freeman's might,
The Plow revolve!
Stand fast, as we, though planets
hurl
And kings their changing standards
furl—
Inflexible amid the whirl
As our resolve!

THE OPEN ROAD

AUSTRALIA ENTERS
DIPLOMATIC FIELD
OFFICIALS IN U. S.

For The First Time in History The Island Continent Sends an Envoy to the United States.

New York, November 2.—Australia has entered the field of business diplomacy. From the island continent at the bottom of the world has come for the first time in history an envoy to the United States, to work for the strengthening of the commercial, financial and political goodwill prevailing between the two countries.

Under a policy similar to that developed by the American government in antebellum days—termed in an apt phrase "dollar diplomacy"—the Australian commonwealth has given official support to ambitions of agricultural, industrial and mercantile interests for international trade expansion.

Recent arrival here of an Australian commissioner has called attention to a new departure in governmental action within the British Empire. The mother country hitherto has directed her international relations and those of her colonies from London. Yet Australia's venture has been approved by the British government and Henry Y. Braddon, appointed to the newly created office, is vested with full authority to lay the foundations for a great Australian-American trade after the war and to negotiate for an interchange of credits to finance it and shipping to carry it.

Because his mission is one of business rather than diplomacy, Mr. Brad-don has established headquarters in this city, the nation's financial and commercial capital. He frankly predicts that Australia with 50,000 of her sons killed in battle and 100,000 others on the casualty lists, will want no dealings with Germany. His chief job, then, as he sees it, is to encourage America to take Germany's place as the principal buyer of Australian primary products—wool, wheat and meat—and as the leading source of supply of manufactured articles imported by the commonwealth.

Incidentally, he hopes to hasten delivery from Pacific coast shipyards of fourteen cargo vessels ordered by his government, and which will form the nucleus of the Australian-American carrying trade.

Owing to his overwhelming interest in the war—he has three sons with his country's 400,000 men in the British army—Mr. Braddon would have found it difficult, he declared on arriving here, to devote himself to a peace time project but for his firm belief that much mutual good can come of better acquaintance between Australia and "the States," as America is universally known in the Antipodes. With this object in view, he announced a plan to set up as a branch of his commission a bureau to furnish the American press with the "high spots" of Australian news.

THEATERS ACTIVE
IN OLE LUNNON

(Associated Press Correspondence)
London, Sept. 17. — This month has been notable in London theater for the reason that so few new productions have been given. The cause is attributed to the phenomenal business all of the show houses have been doing right through the dog days.

Apart from variety houses, London has thirty-three regular West End theaters. All except three are showing comedies of one kind or another.
Apparently soldiers on leave, the chief patron of London's theaters these days, do not care for serious plays.

News of Interest to Women

The Daughters of the American Revolution had expected to hold their postponed October meeting on Monday, November the fourth, but owing to the Health Authorities not authorizing the lifting of the ban for another week, it will be held on Monday, November the 11th.

James Bavel of Nyack, who is engaged in Y. M. C. A. work in Russia, in a letter received by his relatives, describes how he is living in a Russian cotton magnate's palace and being taught Russian by Mme. Tolstoy, daughter-in-law of Count Tolstoy, the famous Russian author. The Bolshevik rulers did not disturb Bavel or his two co-workers in their luxurious quarters. Mme. Tolstoy is teaching them, he writes, because she is temporarily hard pressed for funds.

"While the Community House has frequently been the scene of much gaiety, the Halloween party given there Thursday evening excelled in attendance and enjoyment any previous affair held in this charming social center. The party was arranged by Captain Nettis, military manager and Civilian Manager Kennedy, who had provided typical Halloween decorations, which added their gay bits of color from every nook and corner of the tapacious hall.

Japanese and Jack-o-lanterns alternating with strands of black and yellow decorative paper were caught to the pillars and formed a vivid canopy over the heads of the dancers.

By a clever arrangement the stage was converted into a genuine Halloween scene, showing a garden with bits of October green and the gold of the autumnal harvest, ears of corn and pumpkins being used in producing the desired effect. A tent with a witch and her cauldron added a further touch of realism.

Never before has there been such a throng at the Community House soldiers and civilians alike turning out in mass, eager for an evening of entertainment after four weeks of depression. Every bit of available space was occupied and while dancing was almost impossible under the conditions devotees of the pastime found this no deterrent.

Great bowls of cider were placed in the rooms or either side of the stage and were much frequented by the dancers.

A colored page in Colonial livery waited at the door, his attire and that of some of the guests who were in Halloween costume, being further reminders that it was the night of mysticism and revelry.

About ten o'clock great quantities of confetti were passed to the guests and the dancers were showered with the fragrant of gaily colored paper. So generous were the hosts in providing this means of fun that the air became heavy with dust from the great quantities thrown about, so on the order of the camp sergeant, dancing was ordered discontinued, the next dance, as it was announced, to be a one-step at 8 o'clock Friday evening."—Chillicothe News Advertiser.

General Ludendorff, who has resigned as the directing genius of the German armies. Germany's military command has been placed under the control of the civil government. In the resignation of Ludendorff Germany loses what has often been described as her "military brain." He is said to be a strong opponent of peace at this time. AMERICA WANTS FULL FREEDOM

By Associated Press Dispatch.

New York, November 2.—Stirred by dispatches from London that a report was current there that the allies were prepared to make a "bargain" with Turkey by which she would be left in possession of Armenia in return for a free passage of the Dardanelles, Arshag, Mahdesian, secretary of the American committee for Armenian independence, sent a telegram to President Wilson urging him to protest against such a compromise with the Constantinople government. "With your leadership of idealism the allies have transformed this war into a crusade to secure justice to all the world," the telegram read in part. "Armenia trusts you implicitly but is in apprehension lest we be betrayed by European diplomacy as she has been in the past. Therefore, she appeals to you for a public recognition of her rights to absolute independence from Turkish tyranny."

SORROWING FRIENDS HONOR MEMORY OF REGINA M'D. FOCKE

Regina McDonald Focke was laid to rest Friday afternoon in St. Colman's cemetery, where was gathered a large concourse of relatives and friends, over whom hung the shadow of a great loss and a sorrow all the more acute because of the illness which prevailed in the home, preventing both the young husband and the mother from witnessing the beautiful farewell service. Death's tragedy seemed to reach a climax in the taking away of this young wife and mother so needed in the home, leaving only to her dear ones the precious heritage of memories—memories of the unusual girl; the winning young daughter and the companionable sister; the lovely young wife and mother, the charm of whose personality and beautiful character found its highest exemplification in the home circle. For days there had been a stream of people entering the home finding it impossible to express half that they felt; the teachers who had found her an ideal pupil came to tender their heart felt sympathy; every hour brought letters or messages over the wire, while a magnificent display of floral tribute spoke with mute and fragrant eloquence of the affection

Regina had aroused in all who knew her.

And through it all against the rich cushions of her handsome white broad cloth casket, she lay as if asleep, looking very lovely in the gown of ivory satin which had been her wedding dress. Both her wedding and her burial were of the autumn season and the same flowers of the fall the chrysanthemums in their most gorgeous bloom, prevailed in the flowers surrounding the casket and filling the home.

Prior to bringing Regina to her home here Requiem High Mass was said at Dayton at nine o'clock Thursday morning at the Church of the Holy Family, of which she was a member. It was a private service, with only the Focke and McDonald families present.

The family and friends left the McDonald home shortly after half past two o'clock, Friday afternoon for St. Colman's cemetery.

Rev. Father Fogarty conducted the impressive ritual burial service of the Catholic Church.

The pallbearers were two brothers, Aloysius and Joseph McDonald, three uncles, Messrs. Thomas, Matthew and Frank McDonald, and a cousin, Mr. Norbert Ryan, of Columbus.

Among the expressions of sympathy were Mass Cards from the McDonald family, Father Fogarty, Sisters of Charity, Rev. D. M. Halpin, Rev. Dominick Sweeney, First Lieut. Army Chaplain at Camp Sherman and many others from friends here.

Among the profusion of flowers were casket blanket, McDonald family; and the special designs from the husband, Mr. Francis Focke, a pillow bearing the word mother, from the two little sons, John McDonald, Jr. and Francis Walter; Father and Mother to Regina; Focke family; Grandmother McDonald and family; Mr. and Mrs. Focke; Mr. and Mrs. B. Focke Jr.; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Focke and family; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Focke and family; Mr. and Mrs. George Focke and family; Mr. and Mrs. John Makley and family; Matthew McDonald family; Frayne family; Butchers Protection Association of Dayton; The William Focke Co., Dayton; Employees Focke Retail Co., Dayton; Employees of the William Focke Co.; Officers of Fayette Grain Co.; McDonald Co.; Employees of Fayette Grain Co.; Willis Lumber Co.; Washington Milling Co.; Ford Bros. Hardware Co.; Sour Pickles Club; Junior Ceciliaans, and a large number of flowers from other relatives and personal friends.

Those of the family, relatives and close friends, here for the services were: Sister Elizabeth Seaton, and Sister Jane, of Chillicothe; Lt. James McDonald, Fort Sill, Okla.

Aloysius McDonald, Notre Dame University, Ind.; Miss Elizabeth McDonald, Mount Saint Joseph's Academy, Cincinnati; Joseph McDonald, St. Mary's Academy, Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. William Focke, daughter, Miss Irene, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Focke and son; Mr. and Mrs. John Makley and two daughters, Dayton; Misses Anne and Mary Shoulin, Mr. Dan Shoulin, Springfield; Mrs. Winnie Corbett, daughter, Miss Mary, Cable, Ohio; Mr. and Mrs. John Ryan and son Norbert, Columbus; Father Martin Molloy, Springfield; Mrs. Martin Kennedy Sabina; and Mrs. Grant Marchant, Milledgeville.

HOOVER STATES THAT CONSERVATION MUST BE OBSERVED

Washington, Nov. 2.—Increase of the monthly allotment of sugar from two to three pounds per capita, the food administration declared, must not be taken to mean that the conservation of foodstuffs generally is not now fully as important as it was at the height of the sugar shortage.

While the sugar situation has improved, largely due to the co-operation of American housewives in reducing consumption and to the availability of new domestic cane and beet sugar, the needs for greater exports in other lines is no less marked. The saving during the past four months is believed by food administration officials to total 300,000,000 pounds.

HUN ORDERS WERE ENTIRELY IN VAIN

(Associated Press Correspondence)

With the American Forces in France, (By Mail)—Orders cautioning German soldiers to be on the alert in an endeavor to avoid surprise attacks by Americans issued by German commanders during the German retreat from the St. Mihiel salient.

One document said: "The Americans who are opposite us are to be taken seriously in small enterprises. The greatest vigilance is recommended at dawn and during the cool hours of the morning. Surprise attacks are ordinarily launched at that hour. Sentinels whose strength and nerves have been worn out during the night relapse and become dependable. In view of our recent experiences it is especially important to watch our troops at this moment of the day. In front of us we find the American division, troops young, inexperienced, and just landed."

REVIEW OF CONDITIONS BY MARCH

By Associated Press Dispatch.
Washington, November 2. — The debacle of Germany's allies is being pressed to completion. General March said today and the events of the past week in the world war have resulted in the concentration of enemy resistance in one nation.
Resistance of the Germans on the west front has continued and the greatest allied advance has been registered on the Italian front where maximum progress of 37 miles has been made.
General March said the object of the allies on the front was the cutting of the Austrian line of withdrawal.
"This has been accomplished," he added.
General March identified the American forces in Italy as the 332 infantry regiment, with ambulance battalions 5, 6, 17 and 13. Field Hospital 102, in addition there are certain air service units.
The new Franco-American attack on both sides of the Argonne, already he explained, has progressed to such an extent that a decided pocket has been formed in the German lines indicating the necessity of an early withdrawal from the northern portions of the Argonne forest. This would bring the American forces with their heaviest artillery nearer the German main railway line through Stenay.

WILSON'S TERMS EMBODIED IN ARMISTICE PLAN

(Associated Press Cable)
Rome, November 2.—The allied terms to Austria in response to her plea for an armistice, have been handed by General Diaz, the Italian Commander-in-chief to Austrian officers who entered the lines bearing a white flag.
Official announcement of this was made today.
The conditions of the armistice are inspired by the principles of President Wilson, namely, to render it impossible for the enemy to recommence the war and to prevent him from profiting by the armistice to withdraw from a difficult military situation.

INCREASE NOTED ON ANNIVERSARY OF THE HERALD

Just two years ago the Herald moved into its modern new home on South Fayette street, and the second anniversary of the occupation of the new home finds an increase of 1978 in circulation, bringing the total actual paid circulation at the present time to 3075, the circulating figures two years ago standing at 1997.
Last year on the anniversary date the figures had mounted to 2467, so that the increase in circulation in the past year has been 608—and still growing. The growth of the previous year was 470.
The circulation of 3075 today is divided with 1655 paid subscribers in the city, delivered by carrier boys, and 1420 to rural subscribers.
Always anxious to give the best possible service to the big family of patrons, The Herald is celebrating its second anniversary by throwing out all news "boiler plate" so that hereafter all news matter will be set by the battery of Linotype machines which include the new Model L linotype in addition to two modern Linotypes previously installed.
The new linotype still further increases the capacity of The Herald for handling all the news in short order as well as facilitating ad setting, much of which will be done by linotype instead of by hand.

ENFORCE LAWS ON ELECTION DAY

Columbus, O., Nov. 2.—The new corrupt practices law, placed on the statutes of the United States Oct. 16 last, will be rigidly enforced in the coming election. Robert Pfeiffer, special agent of the United States bureau of investigation, received from Washington headquarters explicit instructions ordering a careful watch made that nothing bordering on violation of the corrupt practices act may be permitted. The law as it now stands refers to the election of senators, representatives and delegates in congress, and provides that nothing can be promised or given for a vote to any person, even if that person has no vote, or having a vote fails to vote. This is the first time as far as known, that federal officers in the different states have been especially ordered to enforce the election laws.

RUSS HARD BUNCH TO DEAL WITH

(Associated Press Correspondence)
Stockholm, October 25.—If any nation or outside leader attempts to set up a stable government in Russia they doubtless will find the mercurial Russians a difficult lot to satisfy. They have plenty of ideas and opinions but lack action.
"The trouble with Russians is that they believe opinions are achievements," recently said a prominent American who is familiar with Russian affairs. This certainly characterizes many of the Russians who are now waiting in Scandinavia for something to happen in Russia. They are criticizing the Allies for failure to act more speedily in Russia.

300 VICTIMS IN BROOKLYN CAR CRASH

Over One Hundred Dead Taken
From Tunnel of Transit Company.

(American Press)

New York, Nov. 2.—A disastrous wreck occurred on the Brighton Beach line of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, 120 persons being killed and 250 injured.

More than 100 bodies have been removed from Malbone street "tunnel" where a five-car train, running at high speed, jumped the track on a curve and struck the side wall with such terrific force that the first car was demolished and the others buckled until they were jammed against the roof of the tunnel. The train, which carried nearly 500 passengers, was in charge of a new motorman.

District Attorney Lewis of Kings county declared the accident was due to recklessness on the part of the motorman, who had been employed as a train dispatcher and was pressed into service because of the strike which went into effect after the company had refused to reinstate 29 discharged men.

William Lewis, the motorman, was arrested at his home. He declared he had no intention of running away, but remembered nothing about the accident until he found himself at home.

When the first car jumped the track it sideswiped the west wall and ran along the ties for nearly 100 feet. The cars behind crashed through it, then buckled against the roof and fell. The gloomy tunnel was quickly converted into a shambles. The wreckage burst into flames, increasing the indescribable panic among the passengers. Almost every passenger in the first car was killed or desperately injured. Many of those unable to drag themselves free of the wreckage are believed to have been burned to death. Dozens of the bodies removed were charred beyond recognition and only a few of them have been identified.

District Attorney Lewis of Kings county declared all the officials of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit Company and every person connected in any way with the accident have been ordered placed under arrest.

According to survivors of the wreck the motorman evidently was unused to the road, as he was compelled to back up at one point when he had taken the wrong switch.

FIRST REAL FREEZE COMES LAST NIGHT

The first real freeze and general killing frost of the season occurred Friday night and as a result virtually all vegetation subject to the ravages of frost was "cooked."

The frost was accompanied by a heavy freeze which left layers of ice nearly 1/2 of an inch in thickness in exposed places and froze a thin crust upon the damp ground.

Not in recent years has the real killing frosts been so late in coming although this season a number of light frosts turned the leaves on most of the trees and nipped some vegetation.

Virtually everyone was prepared for the cold weather of Friday night and Saturday morning however and there was no protest because of the realization that the fair weather has been unusually abundant this fall.
